New Business:

Justin Ruby contacted the park about doing a project Sarah will be in contact with him to see what he had in mind. If he doesn't have a specific project in mind, we will ask him to help with the Gaga pit construction

New librarian at the Glen Rock library there's a new librarian at the Glen Rock library her name is Amber she is genuinely nice she is currently working on putting some summer programming together that would involve use of the park the Memorial Park and areas in front of the library to ensure social distancing this summer we're looking forward to working with her to register people for the summer playground program while they are registering for the reading program

Grants: Victoria sent Ali some York County grants that are due in June and November Ali will send out the grants to everyone to look at if anyone is interested in writing a proposal. All suggested perhaps using one for shades for the dog park or security upgrade by the baseball field.

Softball update: Mike Wetzel added a few extra days to the softball schedule Thursdays have been approved by the rec board

New Animal Control officer there's a new animal control officer for the Glen Rock area will be adding her information to signs at the dog park and on the park pavilion billboard

Old Business:

Donation signs:

Sam will order 3 signs for the park she will go at the dog park entrance and one will go at the pavilion she will send a review out to everyone before placing the order

2021 hiring for caretakers and summer playground director:

Ali, Sarah and Ann are working on interviews currently we've had one interview for the park caretaker position out Kimberly Albert she's a stay at home mom in seven valleys her children used to park on a daily basis and she was very qualified for the job we will send her information over to council for their March meeting for approval she does have her clearances and we are excited to work with her we are still interviewing for the director's position for the summer park playground we've had two interviews so far and have another interview scheduled for later this week we hope to make a decision by Friday so we can send our recommendation to council by their April meeting

5-year plan update:

We'll be looking at some more York County grants for larger park projects council report there is nothing new to report from the council

Event updates:

Egg my house fundraiser is happening now we used to park website to collect payments this year which went rather smoothly we've had quite a few orders and we're waiting for a few more payments the delivery date will be March 28th.

the summer park program will take place again this year in July Tuesday Wednesday Thursday at the park Ali and Sarah will help the new director once we hire her with planning and ensuring there are no issues.

The Glen Rock Train Stop Pop-up Market will be hosting a summer festival on July 11th and a fall festival in September Bella Frane will run the rec board booth we will need to come up with some fundraising ideas to do the today of.

Meeting adjourned 7:06 PM
