- There was some confusion with the softball team and they need to find a new field to use the day of due to the event. Next year we will be sure to send many reminders about the date.
- Everyone will continue to post on Facebook groups/pages about sign up for the race and share event info on local groups/pages as well to increase attendance
- Puppy Yoga had huge interest Yoga tent will be in the front of the vendors
- We have 2 food vendors one is more vegetarian friendly the other is hot dogs chicken fingers etc. both should attract different crowds, so it should be ok with 2 vendors
- Hand off location for adopted dog's EMS Building side lot
- Ali has prize medals, prizes, shirts, runner bags and back drop for photos
- Rose has the games
- York Road runners are all set to help Rose's friend can possible help with the times too
- We have around 35 runners
- It looks like we have enough volunteers but can always take more
- the photographer who donated her time will be on hand for pics she hopes to get a mix of the run, activities and vendors
- Day of set up to start at 6-6:30am

Rockville Rd Property: We'd consider using this money for walking trails and possible an additional pavilion. Doug will contact Judy to see if there would be any interest in selling the property next to the park for future development.
